WRIGHT-METZLER OPENING TODAY.

First Among the Connelville Stores for the Fall Season.

BEAUTIFUL STOCK OF GOODS

Store is Gaily Decorated For the Occasions and Large Crowds Will Attend This Afternoon and Evening.

Devotees of fashion are today attending the annual fall opening of the Wright-Metzler Company. Shoppers from Connelville and surrounding towns look forward to these events with great interest as exhibited on these occasions are the prevailing styles for the fall and winter. All who attend these openings get a correct idea of the leading fashion for the winter. F. W. Wright, president of the company, assisted by the competent managers of the various departments buying goods. That not a department has been neglected is easily shown by the vast assortment of goods which stock the shelves and counters.
Never was the display of merchandise as great as this year.

The spacious store is in gala attire for the occasion and the large display windows. These windows alone are deserving of special mention. The upper window is devoted exclusively to ladies wearing apparel. At either end of the window are handsome crope de chine gowns. One is a very delicate shade of lavender, while the other is one of the pretty shades of yellow. The display of millinery is gorgeous while the fur display is in keeping with the gowns and hats. The lower window is used for exhibiting men's clothing, hats, etc.

The interior of the store is handsomely decorated for the occasion.
The pretty decorations together with the display of dress goods. In all the delicate shades presents a scene of great beauty. Green is the prevailing color used in carrying out the decorations, palms and ferns being used lavishly in decorating the ledges and counters. Silks in all the newest shades are artistically draped at intervals on the counters, while the cases are attractive with ladies and gentle neckwear, purses, jewelry, and other little accessories of dress. The dry goods department is in charge of G. J. Evans. The display of men's clothing is the greatest ever on exhibition in Connelville. This department is in charge of E. C. Moore.
The shoe department in charge of W.
L. Wright is very attractive. Here is shown a wide assortment of ladies', men's and children's footwear in leasand blacks. As usual the millinery department on the second floor is the attraction for the ladies while few of the men who attend leave the store without getting a peep at the beautiful creations in millinery. As the result of the skillful designing of Miss Harriet Ridgeway, manager of the department, and the artistic trimming of Miss Maude Kirkland and her corps of assistants, some of the prettiest and most stunning hats ever seen in Connelville have been turned out. The many styles exhibited are too numerous to mention. There is the large picture hat with the drooping willow plumes. The Marquis hat, the Russian Cosack turban and the Spanish sailor. In color black leads, while the new shades in green, and navy blue come next. The raining shade is especially good. In trimming coque feathers, plumes, quills and handsome parade birds are shown in numbers while many of the handsome costly hats have a touch of gold. The beaver hats are much in vogue while the fur toques in mink and lynx rank among the prettiest and costliest of the winter headgear. The assortment of street hats is such that all can be pleased.
The motor hat is also shown in large numbers.

A fitting companion for the mill-nery department is the suit department on the second floor. H. M. Bell has charge of this department. The large show cases are stocked with one of the largest assortments of suits and one piece dresses that the Connellville shoppers have ever had an opportunity of witnessing. In suits the forty-eight inch coat prevails, while those who don't care for this style can be easily suited in others.
The one piece dress which is so much in favor will bring the long coats into favor again. Among the newest of the coats are the Russian coat with the pleated skirt. These are shown in all the newest shades including raiment, the new green, blue and etc. The evening gowns and capes are gorgeous as is the display of furs, lynx, mink and beaver predominates.
The children's wearing apparel has not been neglected the attention paid to their garments is equal to that paid to wearing apparel of the larger folk.

A very fine selection of curtains is also on exhibition. The department also attracts many people. Numerous tables are stocked with cut glass and the finest of china. During the afternoon and evening a musical program will be rendered by Kitter's orchestra. All attending the opening are given a royal welcome by the managers and employees of the store.
The occasion is one that no one can afford to miss.

FAREWELL TO BASSETTS AT SCHWARTZ HOME

Friends Bid Goodbye to Former Pastor of South Connelville Evangelical Church.

Rev. and Mrs. W. E. Bassett were tendered a very delightful miscellaneous shower last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schwartz at South Connelville. The affair was a complete surprise to Rev. and Mrs.
Bassett and was planned by members of the Evangelical Church of which Rev. Bassett was pastor up until the last conference when he was transferred to Johnstown. Rev. and Mrs.
Bassett made several calls during the afternoon and were invited to spend the night with Mr. and Mrs. Schwartz.
On arriving at the Schwartz residence they were received by a large number of their friends who had assembled to spend a social evening with their former pastor and his wife. The affair was well appointed and various amusements were provided by the ladies for the evening's entertainment.
A very pleasing program consisting of vocal and instrumental selections as well as several readings and recitations was rendered after which a very dainty luncheon was served.
Rev. and Mrs. Bassett were the residents of many pretty and useful presents. Rev. Bassett during his pastorate at the Evangelical Church did excellent work. The congregation has increased in number and the little church is now in a flourishing condition.

Mrs. Bassett also did her part in the church work and the members of the congregation as well as their many other friends regret to see them leave the town. Rev. Miller the new pastor will arrive in South Connelville on Saturday and will take charge of his work on Sunday morning.

DUTCH MYERS BACK IN GAME WITH BROOKLYN

He and Wheat Were the Slugging Stars in First Game Against Cincinnati.

Dutch Myers, the Coker boy, was in the game with Brooklyn yesterday for the first time in several weeks.
Dutch played short in both games at Cincinnati yesterday. In the first game he and Wheat were the star batters, getting seven of the nine hits Brooklyn made. Wheat had four and Myers three.

In the second game there wasn't much hitting done by the Superbas.
Tommy Cantwell, the former Georgetown College boy, performing in the style. Speaking of Cantwell, this had played with Winchester early in the Duggan strike.

At the present time he is seriously thinking of moving to Canada with his family. Mrs. Long is at present sojourning in that country and it will depend upon her advice whether the family will remove from Pennsylvania. The only insurance held upon the property destroyed was $7,000 and there was no insurance upon the hotel furniture.

studied every phase of piles, says:
"Piles can't be thoroughly cured by

CHAPERON HOLDS A DRESS REHEARSAL

Work of the Cast in This Coming Production Will Be Better Than Old One.

The first dress rehearsal for "The Chaperon," the local talent production which is to be produced at the Saison Theatre on Thursday evening of this week was held last evening and will be continued all this week.

The work of the cast at this production will far exceed that of the initial production which was given in the Colonial Theatre on June 10th.
As the cast have all worked with a will and energy seldom found among local talent. Many of the parts have been changed and improved to such an extent as to be unrecognizable with those of the former production but all in such a manner as to make the part more suitable to the play and more easily and pleasing to the audience.

Miss Benford will play one of the principal parts of the play herself this time and that is a guarantee of an evening's enjoyment inasmuch as her part in other productions was always that of a professional and not an amateur.

With few changes the cast will remain the same as before. Miss Marie Gemas will again appear in her old role singing her old favorite which met with much applause before namely "Oh-You Kid." Miss Mildred Miller will be found among the cast again with another very pretty solo rendered in such a manner as only Miss Miller can render it. Warren Murrie, another favorite of the home talent stage, will also be there with his deep harmonious voice to sing some more solos. Walter Schenck will play his favorite part and by the way Mr. Schenck has a dandy solo composed especially for the girls and it is guaranteed to make a hit. The full cast follows:

He Collected.

on a charge of embezzlement of $47 from T. C. Jenkins & Company of Pittsburg, Thomas W. Reed, Justice of the Peace at Fayette City, was committed to jail yesterday in default of bail.

It is alleged that Thomas C. Jenkins & Company left a bill of $47 with Reed for collection, but the money was never turned over to them. The pany gave Reed time to pay the amount which he claims was collected and when that period expired he placed the case in the hands of Attorney D. W. McDonald. County Detective Alex McBeth was informed of the circumstances and made the information.

The Demand for "Nobutton" Is
Reaching a Craze

From New York to Frisco, from Mexico to Canada, Nobutton Vest is a hit with women of taste and refinement.

By the side of the dainty whiteness and softness of Nobutton with its beautiful silkline edgings, its becoming little bow at the neck, and its absence of buttons, the open front kind are almost clumsy by contrast.

Nobutton fits "like a second skin," and is the only garment elastic both ways. It cannot bind but yields with every movement of the body, is unshrinkable and continued laundering leaves it exactly "as before."

If you've seen the "Nobutton" you wear it. If you haven't you should make your tomorrow's engagements fit in with a trip to LECHES, you will find them there priced at 25c and 50c.

THE INEQUITABLE AND INQUISITIVE GAS TAX.

The proposed West Virginia tax on natural gas production does not have the united support of the people and the press of the State. The Wheeling Intelligencer informs us that the measure has the approval of Senators Elkins and Scott; but that it is opposed by certain newspapers and inferentially by many legislators.

Senator Elkins is a large coal operator. His plants mine and ship millions of tons of West Virginia coal outside of the State; in fact, the great bulk of the coal output is marketed in other States. Coal is one of West Virginia's natural resources as well as natural gas. The rule that applies to one will with equal propriety apply to the other. What would Senator Elkins say to a proposition to tax coal production? It is safe to say that he would not regard it with favor.
The Wheeling Intelligencer admits that the proposed tax will be inequitable, but with charming frankness says:

"The old cry that all taxation should be equal, is met by the practical fact that in spite of all efforts taxation on all kinds of property is not equal, never has been equal and never can be.
The production of gas in particular is one industry which is difficult for assessment to estimate accurately. A pipe line is a pipe line, and a gas well is a gas well; but one pipe line may carry out of the State a great deal more gas than another pipe line, and the same rule and for that matter the exact carrying capacity of any pipe line, is something that the average assessor can in the nature of things know little of. Nor can all industries stand equally before the public. The production and sale of gas outside the State is rapidly depleting a great source of natural wealth. No large number of men are employed in West Virginia, and the State derives the most ready benefits in coal mining, agriculture, and lumbering, and in nearly every other industry in the State, we find employment for thousands of workmen, and yet the exhaustion of natural supplies, which they cause, is far smaller than the forced exhaustion of our gaseous wealth.
The fact that all taxation is not equal is no excuse for a deliberate attempt to levy an inequitable tax, nor will the pernicious doctrine that all industries do not stand equally before the public appeal to the public's natural sense of justice.

GREENE COUNTY'S
IDEAL CLIMATE.

The Waynesburg Democrat is surprised to learn from The Courier that it has been humid and hot in this section during the past summer, and says:

"We don't understand why the difference between Connelville and Waynesburg is never had place under weather than the past summer.
With two or three days and nights excepted, the weather here has been lightful, cool, balmy and delightful have been the days. Blankets have been necessary most of the nights, and many mornings in July and August a little are made it more comfortable.
We had to stay at home and work, but we did not envy the fellows who had nothing better to do than go to the mountains and seashore to hunt for something which could have been enjoyed better at home. Heat, the weather man could not suit us better than to give us an indefinite extension of summer of 1908 weather. When you get too hot over the weather Sydney, come over into Dry territory and cool off. The humidity may make the difference.

A beautiful picture, truly.
One can almost see the Greenes, the running brooks, the gamboling lambs and the Ten Mile suckers.
Wet in spots but dry in principle; hot only during election times, humid never; once Democratic, but almost reformed and soon to be Republican, green is (green).

We hope to be able to accept the kind invitation of Editor Headlee to come over and cool off, and dry out, and get the lamb and play hook with the suckers and bid defiance to General Humidity.
At the last pantheist for the brook's water to his own soul, to visit again this scene of pastoral beauty and perfect weather conditions, the house of the simple life and honest purities, before it is disfigured and defiled by the iron tread of that mighty Fayette county industry which is already pressing across the Monongahela with relentless power.
Greene county's fine coal is evidently surpassed only by its fine climate.

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD MEASURES AND MANAGEMENT.

The Pennsylvania railroad improvement is one that will be welcome in Connelville.

We think it will be wise to cultivate a more friendly feeling with the Pennsylvania Railroad Company. There was a time when the management of this company was haughty, dictatorial, autocratic.
It was impossible to maintain friendly relations with this management.
The effort was made and it was a flat failure. The representatives of the borough were treated with contempt.
They went to Pittsburgh by appointment and were allowed to cool their heels outside until their hearts got hot inside, and they were finally told that the Great Man could not see them that day. They never went back. They came home and declared war against the Pennsylvania system.

But times change and systems change, and a wonderful change has come over railway management and especially Pennsylvania railroad management. The Autocratic Buccaneers have been driven out, and the public can depend upon courtesy and justice from the officialdom which was once August and Unapproachable without a Special Dispensation.

There is now a disposition to be fair and even obliging, and that disposition should be met half-way by Con-nelville people.

THE COMING VALUE
OF OUR COAL FIELDS.

The announcement that the life of the anthracite coal fields of Pennsylvania is not over fifty years is only another illustration of the fact that there is today perhaps no surer and safer investment than coal.

We have seen in our own coal fields an ample demonstration of this fact. Values have persistently advanced. The advance has sometimes been slow, almost imperceptible, due to bad financial conditions, but we do not recall a time when it has receded appreciably.

As soon as the financial depression of the past year had passed and the shadow of tariff tinkering had lifted a fresh disposition to invest in coal lands and a broadening out of proposed coal developments at once ensued.

All these things indicate another uplift in coal land values greater than any previous advance.

The arrest of another Fayette county Justice of the Peace for malfeasance in office indicates that the muddy waters of our local justice do not yet run pure and undisturbed and that the work of cleaning the fountain is not yet finished. Yet the work should not be stayed, but on the contrary it should be pressed to completion with celerity. The public should take a hand in the work by refusing to elect any but men of high intelligence, known probity, scrupulous honesty and irreproachable integrity to this office.

Pittsburgh thought she had an earthquake yesterday.

Connelville is going to have an Exposition of her own without the aid or consent of Pittsburgh or Seattle. Why shouldn't the Center of the Coke County have an Exposition, when it has lots to show for it?

A soap-wisdom, all-wise and perhaps too-wise contemporary says the morning is up in the air and coke is $23.25 avail.

The Kloyndyke telephone company jumped its rates yesterday, but it is hardly probable that the public will believe the company. The com-long that the stockholders wouldn't know what they were if they received anything of the kind.

J. Frost has chased away the evening step leasers and gate-changers.

The Klondyke foreign residents are in the Orient trolley accident insisted upon the conductor of the car paying

It's not always safe to show one's tail to the impetuous, nor is it wise to carry all one's money around in one's clothing. Wise men keep their surplus money in the bank.

The Mount Pleasant man who married a widow with thirteen children had no fears of the unlucky number.

The earthquake are coming eastward.

The country has some summer advantages as a place of abode, but when the breeze blows the door to the fire-department at hand to put it out, Urban life has its drawbacks, but it also has its compensations.

ploded and nearly wrecked the burgess-

CHAT WITH OUR CONTEMPORARIES.

The Waynesburg Democrat warns some unknown dealer that he will catch trouble for selling cigarettes to small boys.
It is possible for larger boys, or even grown men, to purchase cigarettes on commission. It is also possible that the boys may beg them from older persons; but the probability is that some dealer with more liquidity than intercity makes a business of selling them to anybody who has the cash to pay for them. The author should think this dealer down and make an example of him.

The Monongahela Times is authoritary for the statement, "Scratch a Western man and you'll find a Booster." Connelville isn't very far West any more, and the hidden of its substantial citizens seem to be generally thick, but there are undoubted evidences that some of them have been scratched through the hide.

The Waynesburg Messenger doesn't want any more State roads. It prefers the macadam road, and wants the county to take care of its own roads.
The State will endeavor to endure this kind of county independence.

George Quigley, aged 18, a member of the Tyrons Club of Elverson, left for Culhan county, West Virginia yesterday, to spend the winter with his grandmother, and take outdoor treatment for his health that he has been suffering for some time. The Tyrons club is advancing the money for the trip, and thus added to their social prestige a humanitarian quality that is most engaging in an organization. Dr. M. A. Noon, a member of the club, says that he believes that at this time there are splendid chances of Mr. Quigley recovering good health.

Dr. Strickler Ill.

Dr. A. W. Strickler, who had been feeling poorly for several days was taken suddenly ill with a severe attack of kidney trouble yesterday morning, when he returned to his office from his morning calls. The trouble is one that he has had on traces of previously and came upon him with such severity that he was taken with difficulty from the office to his home. He was, Dr. James P.
Strickler and Dr. L. T. Gilbert were just leaving to attend the State Medical meeting in Philadelphia and they both remained at home. Dr. Strickler grew better later and this morning was reported to be feeling more comfortably. Dr. N. E. Sizer is the only representative from here to be at the meeting, he having gone to Harrisburg yesterday, with the intention of going on to Philadelphia last night.

Sold His Barber Shop.

R. E. Morford has sold his barber shop on Bridge street, and will enter a wholesale agency business. The new proprietor of the shop is Edward Swartz who was employed there for the last year or more. He will have as his assistant Charles Ellenberger, who lives there, but has been employed in a Connelville shop for some time.

JAMMED IN THE DOORWAYS

1,000 Pupils at St. Anthony's Parochial School, Jersey City, in Constant Fear of Blackhand Rags.
Are Startled by Fireworks Near By.

New York, Sept. 28.—Terrified by Blackhand stories 1,000 children stampeded in a Polish parochial school in Jersey City when fireworks were set off in the street below and in the mad rush which followed, fourteen were crushed, one so seriously that death probably will result.

The fatally injured child is Marianna Zelackusky, seven years old; the others comprise five little girls and eight boys, all ranging from seven to ten years in age. All are in the Jersey City hospital, but it is believed all will recover.

The school house, a three-story brick building, is a stone's throw from an Italian church, which had obtained a permit to set off fireworks during a church celebration.

A rumor got out last week among the children in lower Jersey City schools that an attempt had been made to blow up the schools with dynamite.
The children of St. Anthony's school have been particularly nervous about it, and when the bombs went off suddenly they ran shrieking from their recitation rooms into the halls and down the stairways. There are two street doorways, but one of them was closed. At the closed entrance there occurred a disastrous jam. Here several of the smaller children were trampled into unconsciousness, while others ran back into the building and sprang through open windows fifteen feet to an alleyway below.

Policemen and passersby attracted by the cries rushed to the scene, but order was not restored until fourteen children had been seriously hurt.

This is not the first riot of its kind in Jersey City, as the children of the foreign element are constantly in fear of the Blackhand.

BATTLE OVER PRETTY WOMAN

Five Men Fight For Girl's Affection; Two Not Expected to Recover.

Warren, Pa., Sept. 28.—In a quarrel over the possession of a comely Polish girl three men were shot and one was cut with a dirk. The wounded are Casimer Chensick, shot above right temple, fatally injured; Basil Shoup, shot in back with a shotgun, seriously wounded; Mike Steenic, shot in groin with shotgun; Blachie Bilnick, cut with knife.

Bilnick it is said, did the shooting, and although badly cut, got away.
He and Chensick had quarreled over the possession of the girl and Shoup and Steenic became involved in the affray.

ANCIENT GOD

Believed to Have Been Unearthed Near Dear Park, Md.

Cumberland, Md., Sept. 28.—A strange image, supposed to have been an ancient god, has been unearthed by Charles A. Ashby, a farmer, near Dear Creek, Garrett county.

It is a curiously-carved stone, evidently centuries old. The stone is eight inches long. On one end is carved the head and face of an animal resembling a wolf. On the other end is the face of a human being. The stone is believed to have been carved before the discovery of America by Columbus.

with the troubles of George and Louis Satarikos, proprietors of the Boston Candy Kitchen, which the landlady, L.

In the forenoon a wholesale candy house of Connelville sued charging that the Satarikos brothers had re-defendants were represented by At-went free from the charge.

SCOTSDALE, Sept. 28.—With a banquet, which was well attended by the members and friends of the Scottdale Young Men's Christian Association, in the Reid banquet hall a strenuous campaign for the upbuilding of the local association, was launched last night. The banquet was under the auspices of the membership committee.

H. A. Bricker at the close of the spread introduced State Secretary J.
E. Carothers who gave an inspiring talk on the local situation. He was followed by W. J. Graef, the local secretary, who told of the needs of the association and what it expects to accomplish this year. Then the two opposing forces which will start on a campaign for new members was announced. They will be known as the Mill Men and the Business Men, the former will include all those who are employed in the mills or factories including the clerks in the offices. The latter will be all those outside, in-that they had sold a large quantity of tobies to the defendants and when they came but a small amount of their goods could be found and that they could not understand how so many had been sold so soon. Louis Satarikos

GETTING READY HIS EVIDENCE.

Peary's Charges Against Cook Will Soon Be Made Public.

CONFERS WITH GEN. HUBBARD

Strange, Says the Explorer, Why Cook Should Have Left His Valuable Records and Instruments in Hands of Whitney.

Bar Harbor, Me., Sept. 28.—Commander Robert E. Peary, accompanied by his wife, reached here last night from Portland and within half an hour was in conference with General Thomas H. Hubbard, president of the Peary Arctic Club, concerning the statement which soon will be made public by Commander Peary to support his contention that Dr. Frederick A. Cook did not reach the pole.

"There is nothing to say just now," said General Hubbard. "Commander Peary is here and we are looking over the data he has on the Cook controversy, but there is no statement to be made at this time."

The conference was continued today. From what can be learned of the conference Peary went over every phase of his alleged evidence against Dr. Cook.

During the trip to Bar Harbor Peary spoke frequently of Harry Whitney. "There might have been some strange reasons why Whitney

ADMIRAL DU FORD OF FRANCE AND HIS FLAGSHIP AT NEW YORK

Bushy Run Battlefield Visited By an Excursion of Historians.

MANOR, Pa., Sept. 27.—A perfect autumn day greeted the Western Pennsylvania Historical Association's pilgrimage to the Bushy Run battlefield Saturday. The special train from Pittsburgh brought 150 members and friends. At Manor, Greensburg Chapter Daughters of the American Revolution boarded the train, which was run up the Manor Valley branch to Clarks Crossing, near historic Harrison City. At this point nearly one thousand persons had gathered to welcome the pilgrims.

The local committee, headed by William H. Beamer, had vehicles to take the women to the top of the hill overlooking the battlefield. The glorious view here of the Manor valley and surrounding hills elicited exclamations of delight. Visitors were furnished with blue print diagrams of the battle field and flags were set to show the spot where one conflict took place, the wagon defense of Colonel Roquet and the burial ground.

Nearly two hundred persons were present when the formal exercises commenced. A big farm wagon was used for a speakers' stand. W. H. Stevenson was chairman and Rev. Stanley Kemp of Turtle Creek offered prayer. The chairman thanked those present for their interest in the event and introduced the chairman of the local committee, who gave way to A. P. Landis of Jeannette. Mr. Landis delivered an address of welcome in behalf of Westmoreland county.

Dr. Cyrus A. Court, formerly of Greensburg, now of Overton, Md., was the principal speaker. He gave a history of the battle of Bushy Run and the battle of Red Bank. He also spoke of the importance of the battle in the history of the country.

Colonel Samuel Harden Church paid a tribute to Pontiac as a savage who was defending his people and home. Secretary Bird S. Patterson spoke of the aim of the society and the project of building a statue of Pontiac. He also spoke of the importance of the battle in the history of the country.

The opening of the level had been decorated with bunting and along the gallery the ordinary incandescent bulbs lighting the passage had given place to more bulbs of red, white and blue. The walk through the cross cut to the ore vein was about a quarter of a mile. Through the dark passages the president helped to light the way with his electric lantern while the other members of the party carried candles.

When the president disappeared down the shaft of the Leonard mine with a heavy goodby shouted to the waiting group at the entrance he carried with him into the depths of the earth two of his cabinet officers and won the presidential record for furthest underground.

Taft Descends IN COPPER MINE.

Now Holds Presidential Record for Farthest Underground.

DROPS TO 1,200 FOOT LEVEL

President's First Visit to Copper Country Made Very Interesting. Would Not Have Missed the Trip Underground For the World.

Helena, Mont., Sept. 28.—Attired in a linen duster, an old black slouch hat and swinging an electric lantern at his side, President Taft was locked in a narrow iron cage and dropped 1,200 feet through darkness into the depths of the famous old Leonard copper mine at Butte. He had the rare experience of seeing miners at work with a giant drill in a vein of high grade ore that sparkled green with its wealth of mineral.

After half an hour underground the president was brought to the surface, blinking in the glare of the noonday sun. He was cheered to the echo by the crowd of curious people gathered at the hoist. He declared enthusiastically:

"I would not have missed it for the world."

It was the president's first visit to the Montana copper region and between the smelters at Anaconda and the mines at Butte he had a series of interesting experiences. Not the least of these was a thrilling automobile ride over the mountains from Butte to the mouth of the Leonard mine. The grades were steep and winding, but the chauffeurs were experienced men.

The descent occupied two and one-half minutes and during the journey there was nothing but blackness and silence. At the 1,200-foot level the two lower cages dropped by the operation to allow the president to step out first. It was still dark and gruesome to those below when at last there came the cheery voice of the president from the level, calling to some of the newspaper men who were accompanying him on the trip.

"How are you fellows down there?" he inquired.

"There were still 600 feet of blackness below the cage and, 'Well, kind of dark,' was the reply. 'The light is just getting out.'"

"Well, I don't know so much about that," called the president. "I think I got you safe where I want you at last."

The opening of the level had been decorated with bunting and along the gallery the ordinary incandescent bulbs lighting the passage had given place to more bulbs of red, white and blue. The walk through the cross cut to the ore vein was about a quarter of a mile. Through the dark passages the president helped to light the way with his electric lantern while the other members of the party carried candles.

When the president disappeared down the shaft of the Leonard mine with a heavy goodby shouted to the waiting group at the entrance he carried with him into the depths of the earth two of his cabinet officers and won the presidential record for furthest underground.

President Roosevelt entered some of the Butte mines during his term, but did not get down to the 1,200 foot level.

STEAMER SINKS SCHOONER

Three Members of the Crew Go to Bottom of Lake Erie.

Buffalo, Sept. 28.—The steamer City of Erie from Cleveland ran down a schooner supposed to be the Macleod, hauling from a Canadian port, off Erie, Pa. The schooner sank and three of her crew, two men and a woman, went down with her. Two men were rescued by small boats, but were unconscious and have not recovered sufficiently to give their names or the name of the boat.

Passengers on the steamer were thrown from their berths by the collision and some of them came on deck in their night clothes. Through the efforts of the officers they were soon located.

WILL BENEFIT VETERANS

Pennay May Raise Salaries of Employees Retired on Pension.

Altoona, Pa., Sept. 28.—The salary of all retired employees of the Pennsylvania Railroad company may be increased $25 a month as a result of a meeting here. It is proposed to have members of the Employees' Relief Association of the lines east of Pittsburgh and Erie donate two cents each a day to raise the increased fund. Thousands of retired employees would be benefited if the relief association makes the advance, and in many cases it would mean that salaries of veteran employees would be doubled.

CLAIMS SHOOTING WAS ACCIDENTAL

Lexington, Ky., Sept. 28.—Hannibal Hurst, who shot and probably fatally wounded his brother, Judge J. C. Hurst, in Breathitt county issued a statement which he caused to be nailed to the front door of the courthouse in Jackson that the shooting was accidental and that he was merely handling a pistol when it was discharged. The wounded man also said the shooting was accidental.

HISTORICAL PARADE.

Great Pageant Passes Through Streets of New York.

New York, Sept. 28.—Fifty floats, representing the highest skill of expert artisans, was the feature of the great historical parade at the Hudson-Fulton celebration here today. The pageant passed down Fifth avenue while millions of persons looked on.

The line of march of the parade was a mass of waving color. The cost of the decorations along Central Park West and Fifth avenue amounts into the tens of thousands, while an even greater sum has been expended in the erection of the grand stands which have been built into every available nook and cranny.

Shopkeepers along the route shuttled their place glass windows with boards and householders barricaded themselves behind strong picket fences which the crowds were unable to scale. Grand stand tickets sold at prices running from $8 to $25 apiece. Hotel rooms fronting on the line of parade were worth $75 to $100 each.

Rain and wind interfered with the airship flights, but it is hoped that better conditions will prevail before the celebration is ended.

The envoys of seven nations that have sent their ships of war and the special delegates of other nations participating in the Hudson-Fulton celebration, were officially received last night at a reception in the Metropolitan Opera House under the auspices of the Hudson-Fulton commission. Seated on the stage was a distinguished gathering, including dignitaries from the countries of Europe, the Orient and South America, officials of city and state and men prominent in business and professional life of the country. One of the most conspicuous figures on the stage, the only woman occupying such a position, was Mrs. Julia Ward Howe, the venerable author of the "Battle Hymn of the Republic."

Four Killed on Mandar. Wausau, Wis., Sept. 28.—Four persons were instantly killed and three others injured in a collision between a freight train and a handcar.

SUFFERING ENDED.

A. A. Clarke Sells the Remedy That Cured Stomach Trouble of 14 Years.

And best of all A. A. Clarke guarantees it to cure you or money back. Read this:

"I have been a great sufferer for 14 years, everything I ate gave me heartburns. I have never been able to get anything that would give me any relief until a friend of mine insisted on my taking Mifona. I took one cent box and I believe I am entirely well." F. M. Bryant, Newnan, Ga., June 5th.

Mifona is not a nostrum; it is the prescription of a celebrated physician who is a specialist in stomach diseases.

One clever woman calls Mifona the Sunshine Prescription, because it has changed her from a miserable, nervous dyspeptic into a bright, healthy, happy woman in a few weeks.

These little Mifona tablets are surely wonder workers. They absolutely cure indigestion whether acute or chronic. They stop belching, gas in stomach, and heaviness, in a few minutes. Distress after eating vanishes as if by magic when one or two little Mifona tablets are swallowed.

Only 80 cents a box at leading druggists everywhere, and in Connelville by A. A. Clarke. Test sample free from Booth's Mifona, Buffalo, N. Y.

HAVE YOU TRIED OUR CLASSIFIED ADLETS?

GENERAL THOMAS H. HUBBARD, President of the Peary Arctic Club, did not go back to Etah in the Jeanie for Dr. Cook's stuff," he said. "I cannot understand how anyone could let such records get out of his hands. I would not give my records to my dearest relative. I say again I don't see how Cook could have turned his stuff over to Whitney or anybody else. I secured my instruments in a bag and the bag which I took to the pole I sewed in my clothes and I wore it until I reached Battle Harbor.

"I saw Dr. Cook's sledge at Etah and looked it over carefully, while Professor McMillan held up Cook's snowshoes and showed them to me. But I didn't examine the snowshoes carefully.

"On my return from the pole I saw all the Eskimos and talked with them. After what I heard I would not credit Cook's claims.

"What proof would you require of an explorer that he had been far north?" Peary was asked.

"That if a man went to the highest point that had been reached before he should bring back the records he found there," said Commander Peary. "You will note that Cook's route to the pole was 107 miles longer each way than mine. The people can make their own deductions whether Dr. Cook with his equipment could have made such a journey."

DIDN'T ANTICIPATE TROUBLE

Cook is Sorry He Couldn't Have Foreseen Developments.

New York, Sept. 28.—"My instruments are not lost. I am sure of that," said Dr. Cook in an interview. "If I had known what I know now I should have left neither records or instruments at Etah. Mr. Whitney told me and fully believed his ship was going to that place and he advised me to leave my things in his care to be brought to New York on board his ship, where they would not be jolted so much as in a long sledge journey over the rough land ice to Upernivik."

On the question of his equipment Dr. Cook was very emphatic that he possessed all that was necessary. The statement that the condition of his boots would show whether he had been to the pole brought the following reply: "We used Eskimo seal skin kamiks. When the first pair were worn out we gave them to the dogs to eat when we reached Jones sound and there made new ones. There were also worn out and we made others, with which we returned to Etah."

Gaynor Receives Indorsements.

BOY FALLS OVER THE WHITE ROCKS

Had Some Beer, Some Fast Women and a Quarrel Resulted Which May Be Fatal.

FAIRCHANCE, Sept. 27.—James Mosier is in a serious condition from a fall over White Rocks, which he quelled yesterday. It is alleged that a companion gave him a push which caused him to fall over the rocks a distance of 50 feet.

It is related that Mosier was having a lively time with two girls at the famous place and that he picked a quarrel with a young man named Samuel Smiley and George Jenkins, a companion. Smiley was getting the worst of the battle encounter when Jenkins intervened. As Mosier endeavored to escape a blow delivered by Jenkins he lost his balance and plunged over the cliff. He was found later suffering from serious cuts and bruises and brought to the home of his mother at this place. Two notorious Uniontown women are supposed to have been mixed up in the affair.

CORNERSTONE LAID.

Impressive Services Held at Mason-Town Yesterday.

MASON-TOWN, Sept. 27.—The cornerstones of the new All Saints Church was laid yesterday with impressive services. Those taking part in the services were Rev. M. A. Lambing of Scotland; Francis P. Ward of Pittsburgh; John T. Burns, Connelville, and Francis J. Kell of Mason-Town.

An impressive procession participated in by children opened the exercises. Newspapers, the architects names and various other articles of the present date, as is the custom, were placed in the hole in the stone before it was set. After this service, Rev. Father Ward delivered the sermon which was of a congratulatory character.

ANOTHER BIG PLANT.

United States Steel Corporation Will Build One at Duluth.

Plans for a mammoth steel plant to be built at Duluth by the United States Steel Corporation are nearing completion. A big dock is also contemplated there. The constantly increasing demands for finished steel products is taxing the capacity of the plants of the corporation throughout the country.

The dock will be constructed of steel and concrete. It will be 2,300 feet long and will contain 84 docks. The dock of the dock on which the ore will be dumped from the cars into the pockets, will be 72½ feet above the water.

The corporation will have its three wooden docks at Duluth overhauled. This new plant would mean big coal shipments from the Monongahela valley.

GENERAL HOWARD COMING.

Noted War Hero Will Be With Veterans at Reunion.

Another letter has been received from Gen. O. O. Howard of Burlington, Vt., again assuring the president, W. T. Kennedy, that he will be in Uniontown for the Fayette County Veterans' Reunion Thursday, October 7, and will deliver a lecture at night. In response to a query from Mr. Kennedy, Gen. Howard states that he can remain in Uniontown both October 7 and 8, if desired. This will give the committee an opportunity to take him out to Fort Ness, Braddock's grave and other places of interest on Friday, the 8th.

The Tigers, headed by Captain "Pleasant" Wright made a clean up on the Temple alleys last night by defeating Captain Bob Norris' Topnotchers two games out of three. Neither team did any wonderful rolling, although Beehner came down the home stretch in the last game at a clip which enabled him to beat two pins W. R. Long's individual game record. He fell 11 pins shy of setting a new high total mark. The Tigers didn't come near their team total record, which still stands unchanged.

Last night was one of the few times that the Tigers have had six men on the floor. "Dead Man" have cut a big figure in the Tigers and last night one of the regulars, John Crowley, was out of the lineup. Barkley rolled a good game, however.

The Tigers dropped the first game by four pins, while they won the second by the same margin. When the third game was over Captain Wright and his men had 32 pins they didn't need. The scores:

STATE ATTORNEY WHO IS EXPOSING GRAFT IN CHICAGO.

The conviction of Police Inspector Edward McCann of Chicago on charges of accepting graft from the keepers of disorderly resorts caused a sensation, but the people of Chicago are looking for a bigger one when State Attorney John E. Wayman presents further evidence in his possession to the Grand Jury. Already several men who were under suspicion have left the city, and Wayman declares he has information that will place several prominent politicians in an unenviable light and which may send some of them to prison. Efforts are being made to induce McCann to turn State's evidence, so that other convictions may be obtained.

THE FIRST CHOICE.

It Was Right, Too, Because the Bravest Are the Tenderest.

Some years ago the excursion steamer returning from Alaska to Seattle dislocated its propeller in a dreary portion of the inner passage and came to a forced stop. For two days the vessel's engineers and machinists labored to repair the break, but without success. Two of the boats were manned and dispatched for aid to Victoria, 300 miles away. In the meantime it was discovered that the ship's stores were not abundant. Alarm bells in the minds of pessimistic passengers, and the contagion spread. Starvation might assail the vessel before help arrived.

A former California official took it on himself to ransack his timid companions, but his effort was not perfectly adapted to raise drooping spirits. In fact, his closing sentences but added to the gloom. "Let us be brave," he said. "If the worst comes and that dread necessity which in such misadventures has met others must be faced by us, let us remember that it is good to die that our friends may live. The one or more that may be sacrificed will be consoled by that thought." There was a moment's silence, awful in its intensity, then a cheerful voice was heard. "You should be taken first, Governor Booth. You know the bravest are the tenderest." And when the terror stricken smiled once more—San Francisco Argonaut.

TAPA CLOTH.

Attire of the Native Hawaiians Before Civilization Arrived.

The "paper mulberry" tree (Broussonetia papyrifera) is the source of the famous "tapa cloth" of the Polynesian Islands. This is a natural tissue and is derived from the inner bark and after being torn off in strips is scraped with shells and beaten with a mallet until it resembles a soft, flexible paper. The individual strips are united by overlapping the edges and heating the fibers together until large pieces of the tissue are formed.

It is said that before Hawaii was swept with the wave of civilization men and women were dressed in this natural bark cloth "tapa" or "kapa." The dress of the women consists of the "pua" or wrapper, composed of five thicknesses of tapa, about four yards in length by three in width, pinned several times around the waist and extending below the knee. The dress of the men was the "paula" or girdle, about a foot in width and several yards long. A "kikel" or mantle, six feet square, was sometimes worn by both sexes. In former years these natural cloths were sometimes bleached to snowy whiteness or were dyed in colors and even printed or ornamented usually in checks or squares.—Exchange.

A Practical Demonstration.
"The best way to study nature is to go right to it."
"I suppose so."
"Oh, I know it. I was once disposed to doubt the industry of the ant, of which so much is said."
"And you learned better?"
"I did. I had a controversy with a naturalist over the question, and I thought I had him beaten until he gave me a demonstration."

"Took you out and showed you the ants at work, did he?"
"Well, not exactly that, but he took me along on one of his scientific expeditions and then maliciously pitched my tent over an ant hill. By the time I discovered what was happening the conviction was forced upon me that ants are really and truly industrious. They are small, but they made me move, and some of them went right along with us to the next camping place."—New York Times.

SOISSON THEATRE.

Girls Will Be Girls Tonight. People who attend the performance of A. G. Delamater's musical-comedy production "Girls will be Girls," at the Soisson Theatre tonight will be put through a course of sprouts melodramatically speaking of course—for the three Sprout sisters have not a little to do with the huge success this remarkably clever musical comedy has enjoyed. The triple Sprouts are a real novelty in the way of female characters, and while mightily suggesting Sis Hopkins, have a quaint humor all their own. The location of the play is a young ladies' seminary, thus giving a legitimate opportunity to introduce a score of pretty young ladies who impersonate the students. It may not be the custom for young ladies at a seminary to change their costumes a dozen times in two hours, but the girls in "Girls will be Girls," always do; and in for nobody has made any objection to the practice.

"The World and a Woman." When Mile. Ferike Boros, the famous Hungarian actress and beauty comes to the Soisson Theatre Wednesday, September 29, in Earl Burgess' superb production of "The World and a Woman," Joseph Byron Totten's masterly play of contemporary American life, she will be seen in a series of gowns known to the ladies who carefully and knowingly follow the fashions as "Parisian creations." These gowns represent advanced styles and are especially made for Mile. Boros from watercolor drawings submitted by a noted French designer.

"Where modern garments are to be exhibited on the stage," she declares, "a woman cannot be too careful to exhibit the best that modernity of authority have to offer. Therefore, in interpreting characters in plays dealing with incidents and events of today, I invariably employ noted designers to furnish me with sketches, from which are made my gowns. I think this is a sort of sartorial debt due the feminine portion of the audience, the playwright and the producing manager."

CASINO THEATRE.

The California Girls. The company is composed of thirty people, a score of pretty and shapely girls, four principals and a chorus of sixteen, and ten comedians. The first act, "Girls of the U. S. A.," with splendid scenery, handsome costumes, bright, catchy music and good, clean, wholesome comedy by the comedians scores a hit. The second act, "The King of Kokomo," goes with a scream. Individual hits are made by the Bell sisters, who are petite and pretty and extremely clever dancers, Baldwin and Wallace, comedy sketch artists and Trueheart, Dillon and Burke, knockabout comedy trio, keeps them laughing all the time. Kinners' Troupe of Educated Dogs and Ponies do a remarkable act and as the program states do everything but talk, they are worth the price of admission alone. Seats in advance at the Soisson Theatre.
